

Whitman College Semester in the West
Writing Week with Paul Hoornbeek
Lone Pine and Golden Trout Camp, CA
September 7-13

Sunday, September 7

6:00am Cook Crew

7:00am Breakfast. Come to breakfast with your bags packed.

8:30am Depart for Derby Dam

Derby Dam: Bill Rowley on Newlands Project and the history of Western Water Reclamation

Depart for Reno/Mono Lake

Lunch at Mono Lake, CA

Estimated Driving Time 5.5 hours to just outside Lone Pine, CA

Meet Writing Instructor Paul Hoornbeek

Monday, September 8

Writing Workshop with Paul, Trip to Manzanar Internment Camp, Hike to Ashram

Tuesday, September 9

Writing Workshop, Half-Day with Mike Prather, Owens Valley Committee to discuss efforts to restore Owens Lake and the Owens River

Wednesday, September 10

Early morning, break camp, pack backpacks.

Morning: Meet Paul McFarland, Friends of the Inyo. Volunteer Trail work project.

Afternoon: Drive to Trailhead, (Easy) hike to Golden Trout Camp.

Thursday September 11-Friday September 12

Writing Hiking Epiphanies at Golden Trout Camp

Saturday, September 13

6am Cook Crew

7am Breakfast. Come to breakfast with your bags packed.

8am Depart for Jackpot, NV to meet Jon Marvel, Western Watersheds Project

Driving Time to Jackpot is 8.5 hours.

Readings:

Richard Hugo, Triggering Town (5 copies in library on featured books shelf)

Philip Frandkin, "Deserts," from The Seven States of California *

Gary Hausladen, "Where the Cowboy Rides Away," in Western Places, Western Myths
(5 copies in library on featured books shelf)

* Available as hard copy on the shelf opposite the featured books shelf in the trailer.

Return Copies if you are not actively reading them.